

Connect / Disconnect

Disconnect & Test Stud Terminal Blocks

STH4DT Disconnect & Test Terminal Block is used for measuring, control and regulatory circuits. They provide a clear functional advantage in connections for current transformers.

A standard fork or ring lug (ferrule) can be terminated by tightening the captive nut.

Separate testing points facilitate insertion of test probes. Disconnection is achieved by means of a slide link operated with a screw driver.

CW connectwell
... The Right Connection

