

Simplicity... By Connectwell

At Connectwell, we believe that when our product reaches you it should be just plain 'Simple'. Simple to install, Simple to test and Simple to use. To begin with, we have made our stud connections easy....

The metal parts of our Hinge Type Stud Terminal Blocks remain captive so that you don't miss that essential stud or washer when you are making that last connection. Also the hinge type fully shrouded design makes it 'Finger Safe'.

With almost 3 decades in the industry, Connectwell today offers a wide variety of connecting aids to suit your demands, with quality & safety standards that are very best in the international arena. With prestigious approvals like UL, CSA, VDE, SEMKO, TUV & CE, you are sure to get nothing but the best.

With Connectwell in your circuit ...

... Life becomes Simple & Safe.
